DIES AT RIPE AGE

Mrs. L. O. Ricketts, Aged 80 Died at Her Home Sunday.

Had Long Been a Sufferer and Death Came as Sweet Relief.

Mrs. L. O. Ricketts, aged 80 years, one of this county's oldest and best beloved citizens, died at her home near Camargo, this county, Sunday afternoon after a long illness. Her husband preceded her to the grave about twenty years ago. She is survived by two brothers, Albert and Joe O'Rear, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Stephens and Mrs. Bettie Wyatt. She was an aunt of Squire C. G. Thompson and Dr. J. T. Ricketts, all of this city. The funeral services were held Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Eversole, with burial in the family burying ground. Mrs. Ricketts will long be remembered by her many friends and relatives for her many kindnesses and the loving Christian life which she always led.

Hemorrhage of the Brain Fatal to Mrs. Wm. Freeman.

Mrs. Wm. Freeman, aged about 57 years, died suddenly at her home in the Aaron's Run neighborhood Friday, death being caused by hemorrhage of the brain. She was an excellent Christian woman and had many relatives and friends who will mourn her loss. She had several step-children, among them being Mr. James Freeman, of Lexington, formerly of this city, who attended the funeral here last Saturday. The services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Ligon and the body was laid to rest in the North Middletown cemetery.

Commits Suicide.

Mrs. Adeline Manley, of the Aaron's Run neighborhood, aged 24 years, was found dead by her husband, Mark Manley, at their home Sunday afternoon. Coroner Geo. C. Eastin was called and pronounced death due from carbolic acid. It is not known what caused Mrs. Manley's rash act, and her family have the sympathy of the entire community.

GREATEST GAME YET

Uncle Sam vs. Bankers and Printers At Ball Park Friday.

Big Bill Haney, Who Has a National Reputation, Will Umpire.

What will undoubtedly be the biggest base ball game of the season will be played at League Park Friday afternoon between the Post Office bunch and the Bankers and Printers combined for the benefit of the Mt. Sterling base ball players. The two teams are composed of some of the best players in the world. The Post Office force say they can deliver the goods just the same as they deliver the mail, and that's going some. The Printers are touted as natural born slingers, and the Bankers say they can balance the score just the same as they balance an account, and the Printer-Banker combination is sure that the dry land tarpaulins will have nothing on them.

This game will be on the dead level. Big Bill Haney, who has traveled the Grand Circuit for the past forty years, will umpire, and he sure knows the game and will not overlook a single bet.

The Post Office line-up is Dad Boone, Harve Knox, Squinch Hadden, Lindsay Douglas, Zack Turley, Gilbert Triplett, Shy DeHaven, John D. French, Harvey Turner, Scrubby Hainline, Woo H. Tipton, Silent T. Ricketts, H. Myers Lockridge, Manager; Geo. Owings, Captain.

The Bankers and Printers will select their team from the following: Bill Strossman, Ratliff Lane, Tubby Dick Winn, Baby Frank Hill, Wild West Tipton, Windy Stan Wood, Nitz Senff, Musical Brown, Little Pete Turner, Motor C. Stephens, Lyman Burgess, Banker Thompson, Orb K. Hadden, Manager; Duke Wyatt, Capt.

Big Smoots Brown will act as President and financial backer of both clubs.

George Friedly, who has been offered a good salary to school Barnum & Bailey's clowns this winter, will coach the Tarapins, while the Bankers and Printers will be coached by that Grand Old Man Grump Long.

We see base ball every day and forget it, but this game will be long remembered by everyone who comes to see it and much longer by the ones who take part. Don't miss it. It will be the time of your life. Admission, 25c; ladies, 15c. Game called at 3:30.

Police protection guaranteed for all.

Peter McCormick Wins Race.

Peter McCormick, the good son of Peter The Great, who is being campaigned over the Interurban Circuit in Indiana and Illinois, won a good race Friday at Frankfort, Ind., in straight heats, best time 2:17 $\frac{1}{4}$. Since leaving here Peter McCormick has made three starts, finishing second twice and winning the race Friday. He is being splendidly trained and driven by Mr. Chas. Bean, of this city.

Wytta, the fast pacer of Mr. E. R. Little's, who is being raced on the same circuit, is showing splendid form and getting a part of the money each start.

Injunction Sustained.

The injunction against the City Council to enjoin them from accepting the brick street work done by Hancock & Co., of Louisville, was tried before Judge J. M. Benton, of Winchester, in this city Friday. Under Judge Benton's ruling, if he had dissolved the injunction then the citizens who asked for the restraining order would have been barred from further action or redress, as the court has held many times that after a Council has accepted work, unless fraud was shown, they would not interfere with the workings of that body, but should he leave the injunction in force the city then could take the motion to dissolve the injunction to the Court of Appeals.

He therefore held that the injunction be sustained, and same will be tried before the Court of Appeals on next Friday on a motion to dissolve the injunction.

To Abolish Pension Agencies.

The U. S. Senate has re-passed the Pension appropriation bill, with a provision abolishing all pension agencies January 31, 1913. The House is expected to approve the bill without delay, making all pension appropriations available immediately. If the bill is passed by the House, Major A. T. Wood, of this city, pension agent at Louisville, will be deprived of his office, much to the regret of his host of friends in both parties.

Sentinel-Democrat Winners.

In the Sentinel-Democrat's voting contest, which closed Saturday, Miss Eleanor Guilfoile won the piano, Miss Grace Scobee the diamond ring and Misses Leona Morgan and Mary Dean Hall won the district prizes. Our contemporary states the contest was a success in every way and many new subscribers were added.

Win Second Money.

Bridges Brothers, one of the most popular firms dealing in fine saddle stock in this county, won second money in the yearling horse show at Lexington last week over a very large and select field, and are receiving the congratulations of their many friends. The colt shown has never been out of the money in any ring in which he has been shown.

Moving Postponed.

Owing to a delay in getting some structural steel to be used in the construction of the Advocate's new home, just opposite the Government building, we will be delayed in moving until the latter part of September or first of October. The second story of the new building will contain several modern offices and the building promises to be one of the finest in the city.

GOV. WILSON CHOICE OF PEOPLE.

As the campaign progresses, it becomes more and more apparent that the Baltimore Convention was either very wise or very fortunate in the selection of Gov. Woodrow Wilson, whose equal as a champion of the people and Democracy has not been seen on the fiery front of battle since the days of Jefferson and Jackson.

It is likewise becoming more and more evident that neither President Taft nor the Bull Moose will do. The former is unfit because of his weak and vacillating character and the latter dangerous because of his corrupt alliances with the Harvester and other trusts, his boundless ambition and socialistic views.

Mr. LaFollette, the incorruptible progressive Senator from Wisconsin, proves one to be a failure and the other a faker by the following facts:

"On the day that Theodore Roosevelt was made President of the United States there were 149 trusts and combinations in the United States. When he turned this Government over to William Howard Taft there were 10,020 plants in combination. When he became President these trusts had an aggregate capitalization of $3,000,000,000 and when he left the presidency they had an aggregate capitalization of $31,000,000,000, and more than 70 per cent. of it was water.

"Their power has gone on growing and spreading. There has been no diminution in the present administration. This administration has sought to apply the Sherman anti-trust law more vigorously than its predecessor, but the time to have applied the Sherman anti-trust law effectively was in the infancy of these trusts, when there were only 149.

"I don't believe that the man who was President for seven years, while the greatest trust growth occurred, at the very time of all times in the history of the Sherman anti-trust law when it could have been made potential in deterring trust organization—I do not think that the man who was President then is the man to find the way out now."

PENSION AGENCIES ABOLISHED.

We regret very much to see Congress conclude that the pension payments can be made as expeditiously from Washington as they are now being made from the various pension agencies scattered over the United States. Not that we doubt that it can be done at a large annual saving, but because we hate to see our old friend Major A. T. Wood, than whom there is no bigger-hearted man anywhere, lose his fat position as Pension Agent in Kentucky.

We believe we voice the sentiments of every one of his acquaintances when we say we had hoped he would hold the place as long as he lived.

Paris School Census Padded.

Quite a little stir has been caused by the State Department investigating the census reports of the City of Paris. The census report for the year 1912 showed that 38 per cent. of the population of that city were within the school age and these abnormal conditions prompted the State Superintendent to investigate. He therefore ordered Inspectors Marion Pogue and R. W. Vinson to thoroughly investigate the conditions. They found many names of transients, visitors, the listing of pupils who moved to the city after April 1st, the listing of pupils over age, carrying pupils for three years at practically the same age, the failure to strike from the list those who would be twenty years old before July 1st.

This has cost the State $8,000. A new census has been recommended and just what steps will be taken in the matter has not yet been determined.

Heath-Tinley.

A beautiful wedding was that solemnized on last Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock of Miss Abbie Crooks Heath to Mr. George Dixon Tinley at the home of the bride's parents in this city, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Heath. The ceremony was impressively pronounced by Rev. J. V. Logan, of Middletown, while Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss May Bingham. Just before the march and while the guests were arriving Miss Florence Johnson sang, "Oh, Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." The house was magnificently decorated with golden glow, palms and ferns, by Mrs. William Avers, the color scheme being that of gold and green, the colors of the V. I. Z. Club, of which the bride was a member.

This was the second one from this club of fine girls, the first being Miss Charlotte Metcalf on June 20th, and rumor says there are others to follow. Vacancies in this club are much sought after by the girls, as well as the occupants by the gentlemen.

The bride was tastefully attired in a blue traveling suit and the groom in black. Both the bride and groom are very popular as attested by the numerous remembrances sent them by their friends. The bridal party left on train No. 23 for Norton, Va., and from there they will travel about three weeks in the East, visiting New York City, Atlantic City, Tampa, Pennsylvania (the former home of the groom) and will be at home after September 1, at Chenoa, where the groom holds an important position with the Log Mountain Coal Company, his brother, James Tinley, being general manager of that company. Among the guests from a distance were: Miss Sophia Burgin, of Lexington; Miss Rebecca Calk and brother, Sidney, Misses Leila May Harper and Katherine Wood, Mrs. Fannie Nesbitt and daughter, Miss Alma, of Mt. Sterling; Miss Petry, of Hopkinsville; Miss Clara Gene Dains, of Springfield, Ohio.—Pineville Sun.

Miss Heath is well known here, having often visited the Crooks and Calk families in this county. The best feed for chickens is fresh ground bones. We have it.

County Is Sued by City.

Suit has been filed by the city of Mt. Sterling against Montgomery county to recover of it its alleged proportion of the cost of constructing brick streets in front of the court house and jail.

The Fiscal Court has declined payment on the ground that the city is required to keep its own streets in repair and that the county is exempted from taxation and assessments of all kinds.

The claim amounts to about $4,000.00 for all the brick streets constructed adjacent to the county's property, and since the exact question has never been passed on by the Court of Appeals, the members of the Fiscal Court felt it their duty to make a test of it before paying so large a claim.

As soon as Judge Young decides the question the losing side will at once carry the case to the Court of Appeals for final adjudication.

The city will be represented by Attorneys W. B. White and W. C. Hamilton and the county by County Attorney Earl W. Senff.

A Test of Merit

Before purchasing Life Insurance a man should carefully scrutinize every proposition submitted to him.

"But I lack the time, and am not familiar enough with the technicalities of Insurance Contracts to make an intelligent selection," says the prospective buyer.

The "Standard Measuring Rod" used by the State Mutual Life Assurance Company of Worcester, Massachusetts, is a real test of merit.

It is easily applied, it is simple, and will therefore enable you to make an intelligent selection quickly. It is a real time saver.

You are welcome to its use.

Roosevelt.

Bull Moose Roosevelt has crossed the Rubicon and burned all his bridges behind him. He has abandoned the Republican party and his followers will make a fight in all the States. All his life a political acrobat, a plunger and a smasher, Bull Moose Roosevelt in his new role is in his element. His purpose is to smash Taft to the death; his ambition is to create a new party on the ruins of the old. For seven years the Bull Moose was President. He stole Panama and started the Panama canal. It was a princely act of land grabbing and the inauguration of canal building a noble achievement. Agents of the transcontinental railroads at Bogata bribed the Senate of Columbia and defeated a treaty which would have insured the building of the canal without the absorption of Panama. Bull Moose fought the devil with fire. He won. But he never tamed the gigantic and voracious trusts. They flourished like a green bay tree during his administration. He never tamed the money trust of Wall street. At times he ate out of its hand, and when it threatened to bring about a financial panic, Bull Moose Roosevelt lost his nerve, threw away his bluff and permitted the steel trust to gobble the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company. He wasn't a Richard of the Lion Heart when the crisis came. He was as tame as a pet gazelle and like putty in the hands of a painter.—Arkansas Thomas Cat.

The Opinion of the People.

Gentlemen who talk affrightedly about the hasty judgments of the people lack either honesty or observation. The judgments of the people are not hasty, but deliberate—even slow. The people are naturally conservative. They bear long and patiently; they turn from the old ways and old ideas with reluctance. But there is something tremendous, like the force of nature, in their accumulated convictions. The need of railroad regulation, the demand for protection from poisoned food, the right to control the parties for which they furnish the votes, none of the deep, abiding convictions of the public have come as sudden waves, as hasty judgments. But deliberately, very slowly, the people have reached these national conclusions. There are many instances of sudden changes, of whirlwind convictions, of radical moves on the part of men managing great business concerns, of statesmen, of judges even. But the judgments of the people are deliberate, slow, cumulative, and there never was a more groundless fear than that a majority of the nation may be played upon at will by demagogues and blown into a flame of rashness that will consume our "sacred institutions"—or any other sort that are worth keeping.—Collier's.

"My child was burned terribly about the face, neck and chest. I applied Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. The pain ceased and the child sank into a restful sleep."—Mrs. Nancy M. Hanson, Hamburg, N. Y. 1m Consistency.

Consistency is said to be the virtue of fools. Bull Moose Roosevelt is never consistent. Neither is he a fool. He is after the leading place in the middle of the stage, he loves the huzzas and plaudits of his countrymen, he loves the music made by his own voice and he is on the rampage. He has Taft between the devil and the deep sea. The Bull Moose is the devil and Woodrow Wilson is the deep sea. The hand-writing appears to be on the wall and the devil and Taft, unless all signs fail, will need life preservers in November, after their plunge in the deep sea, to save their lives. All Democrats should pray for long life and loud life for the Bull Moose. He is a croaking and choleric Moses, but as a guide for the donkey he may assist Chairman McCombs to lead the donkey to the promised land.—Arkansas Thomas Cat.

The Demon of Worry.

Worry is one of the most fatal of all transgressions. It is a sin against not one organ of the body, but against the body as a whole. It is a demon whose pressure is felt upon the heart, and there is not a capillary in any gland or tissue which does not shrink under the glance at its gloomy eyes. A man who worries is slowly draining the springs of life. He not only stunts himself, but he makes it harder for others to grow and blossom. Depression is a vice, and like all vices it must be dealt with firmly and with vigor to be overcome. What is the effect of your presence in your home? Does your look fall like a sunbeam or shadow across the breakfast table? Does your conversation lie like a strip of summer sky, or a patch of midnight across the family life? Upon what subjects do you speak with largest freedom and keenest relish—your aches and failures, or the things which are beautiful and fine and high? For your own sake and for the sake of others, you ought to bring your soul into jubilant mood. All your virtues grow best under a sky filled with sun, and the man or woman who persists in being gloomy and sour and moody will have his home filled at last with weeds and brambles and briars.—Arkansas Thomas Cat.

Additional Evidence of Safety and Sanity.

Governor Wilson has given additional evidence of his safety and sanity, and the business world is taking most kindly to his expressions wherein it is involved. In discussing the matter the future President declares that while there should be a general and thorough downward revision of the tariff, it should be done gradually but none the less surely. He believes that when for instance, a thirty per cent. reduction is decided upon it would be better to make two fifteen per cent. reductions instead of making it all at a single reduction. As usual, the Governor is right. There is too much money invested by the trusts and other manufacturers under the protection of a high tariff law to destroy their property by a sudden change of that law. They may have secured it from the party in power by doubtful means, but two wrongs do not make a right, and the Democratic party must treat the business interests fairly.

We hope to see the whole tariff schedule reduced to a revenue basis before many years, but it is a part of wisdom and fairness that it be done so as not needlessly to injure any established business. Many may contend that the trusts, having fattened long enough on the needs of the people, deserve no consideration, but even admitting that this is true the Democratic party cannot go into war of destruction. A command to the trusts to stand not upon the order of their going but go at once would sound mighty good to the trust-ridden people, but it is best to give them time to go, with the assurance that those operating against the public welfare must prepare to forego Governmental aid in robbing the people. There should be no equivocation in this. The high protective tariff must go and only that much tribute must be laid that will provide a sufficient revenue for the Government economically administered.—Lexington Herald.

Youth and Age.

The French have a saying: "If only youth had the knowledge, if only age had the power," and the poet Young said: "As soon as we have found the key of life, it opens the gates of death." This view of age seems to be the product of the romantic movement. It was not so in Greece or Rome. It is not so in China or Japan. It is true only if mating and its preliminaries are looked upon as the one triumphant interest of life. Age, of course, is clearer about what it desires of the universe and cannot have. Youth is unhappy too, but is vaguer about the reason. Those periods which are treated as if they were the happiest, childhood, or adolescence, or early maturity, are as likely to seem thoroughly unhappy to the person actually in them.

The best is yet to be,
Grow old along with me,
The last of life, for which the first was made.

Few modern poets echo those words of Browning's, which, although they overstate, yet suggest the truth. If a person does not grow happier well into life, it is because he has not quite known how to live. The Indian said that the sixties included the twenties and the forties, and the American philosopher, brilliantly arguing that the possession of intellect much diminishes the difference between youth and age, quotes the Vedas as saying: "He who can discriminate is the father of his father." The more intelligent the person, the harder he finds it to decide absolutely among the gains and losses of different periods. Certainly, however, everything does favor youth for the mind which prefers a Bouguereau to a Rembrandt, or Mrs. A. L. Wister to Lord Bacon.

Don't use harsh physics. The reaction weakens the bowels, leads to chronic constipation. Get Doan's Regulets. They operate easily, tone the stomach, cure constipation.

DELIVERANCE TO THE CAPTIVES.

Luke iv, 16-30—Aug. 28.
"He came unto His own, and they that were His own received Him not." John 1, 11.

THE people of Nazareth would of course feel a certain sense of pride in their fellow-citizens whose fame was spreading throughout all Galilee and Judea. They could scarcely believe what they had heard about Jesus. He never did such miracles in all the years that we knew Him, said they. They did not, of course, understand that He had received His power as a special benediction when He was thirty years of age, as a result of His consecration of His life to the Divine service, symbolized by His immersion in Jordan.

At length He came to Nazareth. It was on Sabbath day. For long years He had done the congregational reading of the Scriptures. This was therefore just what they expected Him to do on His return. He went into the synagogue and read the lesson for the day.

Thus far all went well; but when Jesus began to comment there in the synagogue at Nazareth, there were whisperings of disapproval, and finally an outburst of wrath against Him. Ah! they thought, this young man has lost His head.

They drove Him out of the synagogue with angry demonstrations. They led the way toward the brow of a hill, that they might push Him over. For a little way Jesus went, but then He turned and passed through their midst, overawing them by the dignity of His presence.

The Truth That Angered.

At first we read, "All bare His witness, and wondered at the gracious words that proceeded out of His mouth." What made the change? It was the plain declaration that they did not believe in Him fully, therefore it would not be God's will that He should perform any miracles for them. He backed up His statement with illustrations from the past which angered them still more.

Instead of the people of Nazareth getting angry and resenting these things, they should have said, Tell us, then, of our faults and help us to overcome them. If God has blessings, surely we, as Israelites, may have our share if we will but come into the right relationship of heart.

The Lesson From Isaiah.

The lesson for that Sabbath was from Isaiah i, 1-3. It was an excellent text, and the sermon on it was from the ablest of teachers. How His hearers should have rejoiced to know that they were living in the day of the fulfillment of these words! Jesus had been anointed by the Father with the Holy Spirit, that He might declare good tidings to the poor. Surely many of them were poor and needy!

We read further that Jehovah sent Jesus to heal the broken-hearted. How those words would have appealed to any that were broken-hearted!

The declaration further was that the blind would receive their sight; that liberty would be granted to the captives, that the bruised and injured would be healed; and that "the acceptable year of the Lord" would be proclaimed.

"Deliverance to the Captives."

This part of the message might have been applied in part to themselves. Were they not captives, bound by the fetters of sin, the fetters and chains of heredity, sickness, imperfection and death? Were not they actually blind also, as respected the eyes of their understanding? Evidently the time had not arrived for them to receive the blessing of the anointing of their eyes of understanding. Were they not all bruised by the fall—mentally, morally and physically!

But the work that Jesus was doing was merely the proclamation of these things, with a few examples of healing, etc. The real time for Him to accomplish the deliverance of the captives, the liberating of the sin-bruised, and the giving of sight to the blind, belonged to the Messianic Kingdom time. What Jesus was doing was merely a foreshadowing of the great things to be accomplished future—"in the Times of Restitution of all things which God hath spoken by all His Holy Prophets."—Acts iii, 19-21.

Proclaiming "the Acceptable Year," this brief expression, so little understood, pointed out the special work of Jesus, far more important than the miracles. The term, "acceptable year," or acceptable time, refers to this Gospel Age of more than 1800 years.

No opportunity had been granted in the past to become dead with Jesus, to walk in His steps. The proclamation of this opportunity waited until Jesus had made His own consecration, and all who accepted His Message and became His followers did so under this invitation or proclamation. It was the privilege of becoming the sons of God by a begetting of the Spirit.—John 1, 18.

When people read about the cures made by a medicine endorsed from far away, is it surprising that they wonder if the statements are true? But when they read of cases right here at home, positive proof is within their reach; for close investigation is an easy matter. Read Mt. Sterling endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mr. C. C. Schooler, 4 Jamison street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I am glad to praise Doan's Kidney Pills as they were used in my family with splendid results. A member suffered from pains in the back and kidneys and there were other symptoms of kidney complaint. He used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Duerson's Drug Store, and they made him strong and well."

Appeals Strongly to Every Legitimate Business Interest.

John W. Kern, Senator from Indiana.—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is a masterpiece, setting forth with great clearness his conception of the work to be accomplished by the Democratic party under his leadership. It is in complete harmony with the progressive sentiment of the country, but also appeals strongly to every legitimate business interest."

Will Take High Rank.

Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives.—"Considered from a literary standpoint, Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance will take high rank in the political output of the year. It will make pleasant reading and therefore will prove a fetching campaign document. He discusses the issues of the day philosophically, clearly and forcibly. Its courteous tone will allay opposition and win him friends. It is an admirable pronouncement."

Battle Hymn of Democracy.

Senator Gore of Oklahoma.—"The closing sentence of his speech will become the battle hymn of Democracy in the pending campaign: 'I thank God and take courage.' It is at once a paean of praise and is a summons of patriotic duty."

Discreet, Able, Safe and Sane.

John E. Lamb, ex-Representative from Indiana.—"Speech is discreet, able, safe and sane. Governor Wilson believes in the efficacy of the scalpel rather than the big stick. His dissection of trust and tariff evils is unique and convincing. His suggestions of reform in methods of government and reduction of tariff schedules will meet with approval of legitimate business and the laboring masses as well."

Points the Way for Justice.

Hoke Smith, Senator from Georgia.—"I am delighted with Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance. It is a superb statement of the present purpose of the Democracy and points the way for justice to all through real progress by law under the constitution. With his election assured, it should give confidence to honest business and new courage to those who need a square deal."

Lays His Soul Bare.

John F. Fitzgerald, Mayor of Boston.—"Governor Wilson's acceptance is characteristic of the man. He lays his soul bare to the people and asks them to join with him, irrespective of party, in righting present wrongs without undue clamor or injury to legitimate interests. He lays emphasis on constructive thinking, and I believe this epitomizes one of the nation's greatest needs at the present time. It will be President Wilson overwhelmingly in November."

Progressive, but Not Wild.

Thomas Mott Osborne, Auburn, N. Y.—"Governor Wilson's speech fits the occasion and the man—progressive, but not wild; sane, strong and unmistakably Democratic. It makes an inspiring opening of the campaign, indicating clearly and nobly the spirit in which the leaders of our regenerated Democratic party must work; nor one of mere partisanship make believe, but of honesty and justice toward all men."

Prophetic of Success.

Governor William H. Mann of Virginia.—"I think it was an admirable speech. It was wise, conservative, comprehensive, prophetic not only of Democratic success, but of Democratic supremacy for years to come."

Rings True in Every Sentence.

Governor Frederick W. Pfaelzer of Maine.—"It is a splendid presentation of the issues for the American people. It rings true in every sentence and in every word. It represents the spirit of the Democracy of today. It is the address of a statesman."

An Admirable Presentation.

Governor Eugene Foss, Massachusetts.—"It was an admirable presentation."

LABOR AND THE RULE OF RIGHT.

The working people of America—if they must be distinguished from the minority that constitutes the rest of it—are, of course, the backbone of the nation. No law that safeguards their life, that improves the physical and moral conditions under which they live, that makes their hours of labor rational and tolerable, that gives them freedom to act in their own interest and that protects them when they cannot protect themselves can properly be regarded as class legislation or as anything but as a measure taken in the interest of the whole people, whose partnership in right action we are trying to establish and make real and practical. It is in this spirit that we shall act if we are genuine spokesmen of the whole country.—From Woodrow Wilson's Speech Accepting the Democratic Nomination.

tion of the real issues upon which the campaign will be fought this fall. I think that it is bound to strengthen Governor Wilson among the thinking people of the country."

Will Ring Through the Country.

Governor George W. Donaghay, Arkansas.—"It was a great speech. It will ring through the country. It is just what he should have said. The people have never felt more confident of success since the first nomination of Grover Cleveland."

Iowa For Wilson.

Judge Martin J. Wade, Iowa.—"For the first time since the state was admitted to the Union Iowa will this year give its electoral vote to the Democratic nominee for president."

Jeffersonian to the Core.

John A. Dix, Governor of New York.—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesmanlike position on the paramount issue of tariff reform and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation clear conception of the truth that the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize in their government and their economic industrial and social relations the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress, upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need Governor Wilson applies the 'rule of right and common advantage.' The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that will restore to the people the control of their government and inaugurate a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

Worthy Leader of Progressive Americans.

Louis D. Brandeis, Boston.—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the utterance of a twentieth century statesman. With keen perception he recognizes the evils from which the people are suffering and the dangers which threaten our welfare. With broad vision he points the way by which those evils may be removed and the dangers averted. He proves his understanding alike of business and of social needs and that he is a Democrat in fact as well as in name, and his courage is undoubted. Progressive Americans have in him a worthy leader."

Equable and Moderate.

New York Sun.—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance has good luck as well as merit. It comes just in time to contrast sharply with the interminable bedlam rant of Th. Denatus Africanus Ferox. And, if without contempt of campus it may be said, though written by a college president very recently retired, it is in the English language, not anæmic and sordid with suspicion of priggishness or donnishness, though it has an air, a certain academic distinction of its own. What will please everybody who has a living to make is Governor Wilson's equable and moderate tone. Governor Wilson is for repair, not for destruction."

Partnership of the People.

New York Times.—"It is applicable. The dominant thought, the very soul of his discourse, is the common interest of all the people, their partnership in our activities and our prosperity. The partnership idea comes from his mind not as a sublimated political theory, but as a practical, immediate remedy."

Straight to the Heart.

New York World.—"Woodrow Wilson's speech of acceptance is the ablest, clearest, sincerest statement of high public purpose this country has known in a generation. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without partisan bitterness, without denunciation, without egotism, without demagogic, he has driven straight to the heart of the supreme issue of American institutions—the partnership between government and privilege."

REVISE TARIFF UNHESITANTLY DOWNWARD.

There should be an immediate revision of the tariff, and it should be downward, unhesitatingly and steadily downward.—From Woodrow Wilson's Speech Accepting the Democratic Nomination.

FARMERS SHOULD SUPPORT WILSON

Best Equipped Man For Presidency Since Lincoln.

SENATOR GARDNER'S VIEWS.

The Maine Statesman, Himself a Farmer, Declares That President Taft Would Continue to Tax Farmers of the United States, and at the Same Time Compel Them to Compete With Canadian Farmers.

The reasons why those engaged in agricultural pursuits should support Governor Woodrow Wilson for president are strongly set forth by Senator Obadiah Gardner of Maine in an address to farmers.

Senator Gardner is a practical farmer, one who farms his own farm, and is probably in closer touch and sympathy with country life and its environments than any other man in public life.

For twenty-five years Senator Gardner has been actively interested in the national grange, and for ten years he was the master of the state grange of Maine. A few years ago he came within a close margin of being elected governor of the Pine Tree State.

A little less than a year ago, when Senator Frye, who had represented Maine in the senate for thirty years, died, Governor Pfaelzer honored Mr. Gardner and recognized the agricultural interests of the country by appointing him to the United States senate, where he has made a most creditable record, devoting particular attention to the welfare of the great rural population of the country. He is now a candidate for re-election and will undoubtedly be successful.

In his address Senator Gardner says:

To the Farmers of the United States, Greeting:

Being, one of you and for the greater part of my life having been engaged in the practical everyday duties of my own farm, having been for twenty-five years past chairman at work through boards of agriculture and the national and state granges, having served four years as president of the Maine state grange, and as master of the Maine state grange for ten years, during which time the order in Maine added 554 members and attained a power and influence never held before,

I feel I am in a position to speak from the standpoint of one who knows the farmer and his needs, and it is solely because of

THE PEOPLE AND THE CURRENCY.

In dealing with the complicated and difficult question of the reform of our banking and currency laws it is plain that we ought to consult very many persons besides the bankers, not because we distrust the bankers, but because they do not necessarily comprehend the business of the country, notwithstanding they are indispensable servants of it and may do vast deal to make it hard or easy. No mere bankers' plan will meet the requirements, no matter how honestly conceived. It should be a merchants and farmers' plan as well, elastic in the bands of those who use it as an indispensable part of their daily business.—From Woodrow Wilson's Speech Accepting the Democratic Nomination.

None can meet the splendid Mrs. Wilson and her three refined, cultured daughters with their perfect naturalness but must feel that the whole family of Woodrow Wilson was especially prepared to fill a great need in the present crisis in the history of our country, as were Washington, Jefferson, Jackson and Lincoln, and I would advise the farmers upon my reputation as a man if you want to protect your own interests and those of your families if you want to render the greatest possible good to your country and future generations, if you want to contribute your part to the end that popular government under God shall not perish from the earth, then see that the Hon. Woodrow Wilson is elected president.
